Obituary

Arline Neva Addison, 79, of Wheatland, Wyoming, died Saturday, May 12, 2012 at her home in Wheatland due to lung cancer.
Arline was born in Long Pine, Nebraska on November 15, 1932, to Neva Alice Rodgers and Edward Conrad Stoner. Arline was raised in Riverton, Wyoming, where she graduated from high school in 1951. She married William Middleton Addison on December 21, 1952. They lived in small towns in Wyoming, Colorado, and Montana before settling in Wheatland in 1964. Her hobbies were reading, traveling, bridge, and poker.
Arline is survived by son, Bill Addison (Ann) of Lenoir City, Tennessee; daughter, Katy Addison Haggerty of Wheatland; grandsons, Justin Addison of Aspen, Colorado, Clinton Addison of Austin, Texas, Budd Nesius of Wheatland, and Chris Nesius of Wheatland; grand daughters, Sara Edick of Calcium, New York, Kody Palmer of Richville, New York, and Amy Palmer of Gouvernor, New York; great-grand daughter, Abigail Edick of Calcium, New York; brother, Ray Stoner (Joan) of Mills, Wyoming; and several uncle, nieces, nephews, and cousins.
She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, William Middleton Addison on February 17, 2012; and two daughters Susan Addison and Gail Palmer.
A memorial to the Platte County Memorial Hospital, 201 Fourteenth Street, Wheatland, Wyoming 82201 would be appreciated by the family.
Cremation has occurred and as per her request no services will be held.

Service Summary

No services to be held